A FINANCIAL SMASH

Failure of a New York

National Bank.

Due to the Acts of the President.

Loans of Large Amounts Granted by Him to Irresponsible Parties.

NEW YORK, March 23.—The official announcement was made tonight that the Washington National Bank, at No. 1 Broadway, would not open its doors tomorrow.

The bank's resources have been loaned out by the president to two friends and discovery of the condition of affairs was accidentally made. The bank is not a member of the Clearing House Association. Under the rule of the Clearing House which went into effect January 1, banks clearing in this way must submit their accounts to examination by the Clearing House. Today Bank Examiner Hepburn, representing the Clearing House, appeared at the Washington Bank to examine its affairs. He soon discovered its capital was impaired. As soon as this announcement was made, President Sherman, who has been in charge of the bank, was prostrated, but recovered sufficiently to inform the directors he had been too liberal in lending money to his friends.

Two accounts have been discovered, footing up $121,000, that are probably total losses. One is for $71,000, secured by poor and worthless collateral, and the other a draft for $50,000 on John Silva, which had been cashed by the president and "hung on the hook." It is said Silva has promised to make it good tomorrow.

The bank had a capital of $300,000 and deposits of $600,000.

The only officers present when a complete announcement was made by the bank examiner were Cashier J. T. Grainger and Director Sidney Tilghman. The president had gone away, no one knew where.

The president of the Gallatin bank at once gave notice that his institution would no longer clear for the Washington Bank. This news prevented any attempt being made to take up the losses.

Director Tilghman said: "The bank will be placed in charge of Bank Examiner Hepburn and most probably wound up. I am positive every depositor will be paid in full."

Cashier Grainger said the developments were a surprise to both himself and the directors. None of them had any idea the president was involved in any irregular transactions and he could say nothing about the details of the method by which the funds were withdrawn.

Director Tilghman said he discovered some slight irregularities about a week ago. An investigation disclosed an impairment of the capital in the neighborhood of $75,000. The officials of the Gallatin National were very friendly and promised to continue to clear for the bank if the impairment was made good. Tilghman was about to pay in a check for $75,000 today when President Sherman disclosed other things which had been concealed, increasing the impairment fully $60,000. Under these circumstances, Tilghman did not see how the bank could continue.

President Sherman was seen this evening. He feels keenly the closing of the bank, and said it was unnecessary, and that all would have been right if the directors had let him alone. Answering the accusation that he had given great latitude in loans and accepted undesirable security, he said the first loan was made to cover an overdraft, because he wanted to save the bank from loss and the man from failure. He hoped to recover the money in a short time, but admitted the security was not first class. That overdraft was between $68,000 and $75,000.

Another transaction was the loan of $7300, secured by first mortgage bonds of the Prescott & Arizona Central railroad to the amount of $10,000. These bonds, he said, were considered good.

President Sherman said the depositors would be all secured. There would be some little loss, but that would come out of the stockholders. Depositors might have to wait a short time, because the money had been lent on notes, which could not be collected now.

A Complete Failure.

YORK, Pa., March 23.—Michael Schall and James H. Donnor, trading as Schall & Donnor, bankers, have assigned. Liabilities and assets cannot be ascertained but it is a complete failure, liabilities far exceeding assets.

A Clothing Assignment.

NEW YORK, March 23.—Schwab Bros., manufacturers of cloaks and jerseys, at Greenville, have assigned.

A CABLE LINE SUIT.

MILLIONAIRE Mackay Defendant in a Suit for an Unpaid Balance.

NEW YORK, March 23.—In a suit brought by Edward S. Stokes to recover $75,000 in a stock deal from John W. Mackay, the millionaire and Hector DeCastro, of the Mackay-Bennett Cable Company, Judge Barrett today ordered Mackay to submit to an examination before the trial.

Stokes claimed he turned over bonds and stocks which defendants agreed to pay $100,000 for. Heonely received $25,000 on account. Mackay claims to have bought and paid for all the stock he had. DeCastro swears Mackay advanced him $1,233,000 to buy up telephone lines.

A Heavy Attachment.

TOLEDO, Ohio, March 23.—The sheriff today attached the old chamber of commerce building, formerly occupied by the produce exchange. A petition for judgment on a note of $100,000 and a foreclosure of mortgage securing the note were filed by the Pennsylvania Mutual Insurance Company against John B. Carson and the administrators and heirs of James A. Gamble, deceased. George Beckwith was appointed receiver.

THE MONON DEAL.

Every Probability That the Proposed Loan Will be Secured.

CHICAGO, March 23.—General Thomas and Mr. Greenough, in company with Monon officials, started today on a trip of inspection over that road.

There is little doubt that the proposed loan will be made and the syndicate be elected directors, but President Breyfogle and his staff will probably continue in their present capacity. That the proposed deal will be of the great benefit to the Monon nobody doubts. The syndicate furnishing the new loan control the great Richmond terminal system and a line of steamers and can throw to the Monon a large amount of through traffic it would not otherwise get.

AN ASSAULT ON HEALY

SERIOUSLY INJURED BY A HOWLING DUBLIN MOB.

Struck in the Face and His Eyeglasses Smashed—Fears He Will Lose His Sight.

DUBLIN, March 23.—When Timothy Healy came out of the court room this evening, where he had been in attendance on a suit in which he is interested, he was soon surrounded by a howling mob, who followed him along the street and made a number of attempts to assault him.

The crowd finally became so violent that Healy was compelled to beat a retreat and take refuge in the dressing room of the Victoria Hotel, but this proved only a temporary place of safety, for, before Healy could recover from the effect of the mob's rough usage, a man rushed into the room, turned out the light and then struck Healy a powerful blow in the face, smashing his eyeglasses into pieces.

When assistance arrived and the room was lighted, Healy was found to have been badly injured, as he had received a number of cuts from broken pieces of glass.

He was removed to his room and physicians summoned. Three doctors are now in attendance. They have made an examination of the wounds in his eyes, and express fears that he will lose his sight.
